INSTALLING CAGE
NEW MIDWAY SHAFT

WILL RESUME CROSSCUT WHEN THE COUNTERBALANCE IS PLACED

A cage is being substituted for the crosshead bucket in the new shaft of the Tonopah Midway company and the chafin for the new counterbalance are being put in. This will require about three more days, during which time no other work will be carried on in the new shaft.

As soon as the work is finished the north crosscut on the 1350 level will be extended to cut the ledge found in the shaft. The heading is now out about fifty feet.

The old workings continue to be a hive of industry, ore being hoisted every day, while a number of the tributers who had not hitherto shipped, are now getting into good rock.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE
REACHES A CRISIS

Curtailement of American Orders Said to Be Inevitable as Result of Crash

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Foreign exchange rates reached the most serious crisis yet attained, today, breaking 2 1/2 cents on the pound sterling, now quoted at 4.58 1/2, passing the mark which bankers say makes the curtailment of American orders inevitable. The present rates make London purchasers pay 5 per cent premium on all purchases. London reports financial houses utilizing the low rate to sell American bonds, the depreciation in these being offset by the profit in exchange.

CHEYENNE MOURNS AT PERSHING FUNERAL

(By Associated Press.)
CHEYENNE, Aug. 31.—The funeral of Mrs. Pershing and her three daughters, who lost their lives in a recent fire at the Presidio in San Francisco, was held here today. The procession passed between long rows of citizens and fraternal orders. The stores and industries of the state are idle in respect for the army officer's grief and loss.

COLDEST AUGUST IN CHICAGO'S HISTORY

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Today marked the passing of the coldest August in history. June and July were also the most unseasonable in the records of the weather bureau. The prevailing summer winds were inexplicably Canadian instead of the usual warm Bermuda trade winds.

UNIVERSITY OPENS;
OVER 200 STUDENTS

PROMISE THAT ATTENDANCE WILL LATER BREAK ALL PAST RECORDS

With over two hundred students of the University of Nevada in Reno from all parts of the state and several places in California, the university buildings and campus will be scenes of activity today, the date of the opening of the fall semester.

Some of the boys and girls have been here for some time, getting quarters and becoming acquainted with the city. Others, who have been here for one, two or three years, also came early to be in readiness for the opening. A large number, however, delayed arrival until last night and all incoming trains carried their quota of collegians.

Today and tomorrow examinations will be held. This day's examinations will be for entrance and tomorrow's for re-examination. Tomorrow and Wednesday will be devoted to registration and thereafter regular class work will be in order.—Journal

TEXAS CITY ARMY CAMP
WILL NOT BE REBUILT

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Secretary Garrison announced today that the war department had determined not to re-establish the divisional army camp at Texas City, Texas, destroyed by the recent storm.
